

PROGRAM GUIDELINES

The RBC Future Launch Scholarship is an innovative program designed to empower Canadians to gain the skills needed for today's evolving workforce.

By offering access to upskilling and reskilling opportunities, the scholarship helps recipients prepare for meaningful and rewarding careers. With 400 scholarships awarded annually, it represents a significant investment in the future success of young Canadians.

Resources to help identify skills and career paths can be found on the RBC Future Launch Website: <https://www.rbc.com/en/future-launch/resource-type/tools/rbc-upskill>

What makes this scholarship unique?

- Flexible Learning Opportunities: Eligible programs include micro-credentials, short-term courses, workshops and conferences, certificate programs, professional and trades certifications, continuing education and bridging programs, specialized training, apprenticeships, and many other educational options.
- Wide Usage of Funds: Each scholarship is valued at $1,500 and it is paid directly to you. You can use the funds for books, tools, travel, lodging, or other fees that you have incurred through your educational pursuit.
- No Academic Transcripts Required: We prioritize your passion and goals over academic performance, focusing on your drive to succeed and grow.

Here's what you need to know.

NUMBER AND VALUE OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Up to 400 scholarships, valued at $1,500 CAD, are available.

ELIGIBILITY

You are eligible if you:

- are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada; or have proof of status as a Protected Person or Convention Refugee from Immigration and Citizenship Canada (claimants are not eligible);
- are at least 15 years old at the time of applying for the scholarship;
- are enrolled or registered to participate in an eligible learning opportunity that will take place within the dates of January and December 2025 at an eligible institution;
- are not an RBC employee or a dependent of an RBC employee; and
- are not a current/active recipient of the RBC Future Launch Scholarship for Black Youth, the RBC Future Launch Scholarship for Indigenous Youth, or the RBC Foundation Green Skills Scholarship.

Previous recipients may re-apply; however, a person can only receive the RBC Future Launch Scholarship twice.

ELIGIBLE INSTITUTIONS

You can study at:

- an institution/organization which is registered for taxation purposes in its home country.

FIELDS OF STUDY PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Learning opportunities are defined as short-term and skill-focused programs, courses and activities, with durations ranging from a few hours to a couple of years.

Examples of eligible learning opportunities include but are not limited to:

- Micro-credentials (e.g., digital marketing, cybersecurity, data analysis)
- Short-term courses and training (e.g., graphic design, language learning, photography, coding bootcamps)
- Workshops and conferences (e.g., public speaking, industry-specific forums)
- Certificate programs (e.g., event planning, project management, TESL certification)
- Professional and trades certifications (e.g., HVAC technician, Occupational Health and Safety, Certified Financial Planner (CFP))
- Continuing education and bridging programs (e.g., adult education or high school credit upgrading, ESL teaching, healthcare re-certification)

- Specialized training (e.g., tree care and forest management, marine navigation, hiking guide)
- Apprenticeships (e.g., carpentry, electrician, sewing, culinary arts)

Learning opportunities must not exceed two (2) years in duration, and they may be delivered in-person, online, or in a hybrid format.

CONDITIONS/RESTRICTIONS

- The learning opportunity must take place between January-December 2025.
- Scholarship deferral requests will not be granted.

WHEN TO APPLY?

Applications are accepted year-round (January to December) in five annual intakes:

- January to March
- March to May
- May to July
- July to September
- September to December

If you are selected to receive an award, you will need to submit documentation that confirms that you are actively registered or enrolled in your chosen learning opportunity before your award payment can be processed. Therefore, we recommend that you apply only once you have started pursuing the learning opportunity that you identify in your application.

HOW TO APPLY?

To apply for the scholarship, please submit an online application no later than 1:00 PM EST December 11, 2025, by visiting

https://portal.scholarshippartners.ca/welcome/flscholarship\_EN/

Previous recipients may re-apply; however, a person can only receive the RBC Future Launch Scholarship twice.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

- Letter of support: The letter of support can come from anyone who has supported you or has been your mentor.
  - Examples include a relative, boss, co-worker, teacher/professor, coach, volunteer coordinator, social worker or any other adult who has played a significant role in your life.
  - The person writing the letter should describe how they know you and why they support your application.
  - The letter must be dated within one (1) year of the application deadline (December 11, 2025).
  - The letter must include the author's contact information including full name, e-mail address, and phone number.
- Content submission: We want to know what receiving this scholarship would mean to you and how it would impact your life.
  - The content submission should demonstrate your interest in the learning opportunity and how it will advance your career goals.
  - You may submit your content in the form of a written essay, a video, a blog article, a vlog, an image, an audio recording, a poem, an animation, a presentation (with or without voiceover), or another medium of your choosing.
  - Note: Audio or video recordings must be uploaded to YouTube and should be no longer than 2 minutes in length. Submissions through other video-hosting platforms or that exceed the time limit will render the application incomplete.

All required documents must be uploaded by submitting an online application by 1:00 PM EST December 11, 2025.

Detailed instructions can be found in the application. Remember, your application must be complete to be evaluated, and deadline extensions will not be granted.

We will communicate with you through your student portal account. Be sure to keep contact information up to date and to notify us of any changes.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Applications are assessed on:

- Impact: Explanation of how the learning opportunity will lead to advancement of professional goals, how the scholarship funds will be used, and how they are critical to your success in the learning opportunity.
- Drive for Learning: Description of educational and professional goals and demonstrated drive and commitment to achieving goals.
- Application Effort and Overall Quality: Coherence, clarity, persuasiveness, and thoughtfulness of the application and supporting documents.

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection process is conducted by program officers at Scholarship Partners Canada. RBC has no influence in the decision.

Depending on application volume, selection may take up to 12 weeks from the date your application is submitted.

All applicants will receive the results of the selection process by email.

SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

Successful applicants will receive scholarship confirmation by email.

When you receive your confirmation, complete the online acceptance process, and submit the necessary documentation, which includes proof of registration or evidence of enrolment that confirms that you are actively registered, enrolled or attending the learning opportunity is necessary before your payment can be processed.

SCHOLARSHIP PAYMENT

Payment will be made after the acceptance process and document review:

- Scholarship payments for this program will be made directly to the applicant by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT).
- To process the payment, successful applicants are required to provide Scholarship Partners Canada with a void cheque and complete the SIN (Social Insurance Number) form.

Note: It is the successful applicant's responsibility to ensure that the payment of their course or program fees are made within the defined time frame set by the provider of the learning opportunity, regardless of the timing of the scholarship payment.

Universities Canada reserves the right to audit expenses. As such, successful applicants are required to keep the receipts for all expenses for one year related to their learning opportunity and to provide them upon request.

We will communicate with you through your student portal account. Be sure to keep contact information up to date and to notify us of any changes.

RBC has entrusted the administration of its scholarship program to SPC, a division of Universities Canada. We administer over 140 scholarship programs for corporations, government agencies, and private foundations in North America and are affiliated with top companies in almost every sector of the economy.
